

POLICE REPORT

Case No. #123456

Date: August 13, 2015

Reporting Officer: Jared Marcus

Prepared by: Danny Porter

Incident/Issue: 42 year old Joe Wilson was found dead in his work office at Dirocco Paper Company. He appeared to only have been deceased for a short time. No one witnessed the death of the man.

Description of Issue: The deceased male was found slumped over his work desk at 4 PM by a co-worker. The man was clothed, but appeared to be drenched in what was assumed to be sweat. No visible wounds or injuries were on the body, and no obvious signs of foul play were found.

Actions Taken: The coroner came to collect the body, and the body was sent for an autopsy to be performed to determine the cause of death. Evidence was collected by the police force. Co-workers at Joe Wilson's work office were questioned, and a follow-up will be conducted soon.

Report Summary: No foul play was found at the crime scene. Investigators will follow up with co-workers, question friends and family, and take a closer look into who Joe is involved with. Joe's schedule for the day he died will also be examined for possible answers.
